

University College London

I. FINANCE

From the time when the new Department of Education and Science

II. GENERAL

Once more, this part of the Annual Report must begin by

[REDACTED]

for three years, Dr Sidney Greenbaum has left University

College with our good wishes and gratitude to take up a visiting professorship at the University of Oregon. As with other colleagues who have left us, there will be some of our materials in her doctoral thesis. Other visitors who were interested in our techniques in connexion with their own research projects were Professor W. Nelson Francis (Brown University), Mr Morris Jones
[REDACTED]

(Bangon) Mrs G. Mattie (Stockholm) Dr Benet Lerner (Lund)

and informal interview material under PD's leadership with the help of VA and RMK; (b) the preparation of duplimat copy

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

mentioned in section IV below. DD continued with the

[REDACTED]

parameters as stylistic indices and to the reading aloud of written materials.

Thirdly, a good deal of further work has been done

[REDACTED]

While the pursuit of 'mechanised analysis' no longer occupies a prominent place in our work (and still less in our budget) for the reasons already stated, we have heretofore been obliged to discontinue it entirely

Teachers of English; he gave two radio talks on accents. SG gave several lectures in the Department of General Linguistics (UCL) and also visited the University of York to lecture on the Survey. VA and

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

DD once more conducted tutorial classes on the University

(London: Longmans). In press.

Quirk R., 'From Descriptive to Prescriptive: An Example' (rev). ELT Selections, ed. W.R.Lee. (London: Oxford University Press, 1967), 91-4.

(with A.C. Gimson, J. Worby) The Use of English

41

S.

The

with date and need,
XL (1968) 130-140.

ssives' (Proceedings of the Fourth International Congress of -- Essays on the English Language (London: Longmans).

In press.