£30,000, which may be increased if budgets permit

What is the application d

For example, topics that could be incorporated and addressed under this theme could include:

- Place and race
- Place-based health and educational inequalities
- Patterns of migration
- Displacement policy responses
- International law and role of international bodies
- Resettlement
- Equality as a component of global governance / localised governance
- Fostering cultural understanding and attitudes toward refugees in different cultures
- Climate displacement and issues of climate justice
- Equitable and local-led solutions toward sustainability
- Role of technology in resettlement schemes

UCL Grand Challenges' special initiative of Place & Displacement provides the opportunity for colleagues across UCL to identify topics that require cross-disciplinary attention as a basis for further research, for problematizing current debates, and considering critical issues.

We strongly encourage collaboration with external partners, either from other academic institutions, or third sector, community organisations, industry, business, or policy.

Funding call criteria

Applications for projects costing up to £10,000 will be considered. The total funds allocated for this scheme is £30,000, pending finalisation of RIGE budgets; this will be increased if budgets permit.

Grants can support activities that generate societal impacts leading to outputs, including, but not limited to:

- Research or policy workshops, symposia or conferences
- Articles or comment pieces in peer publications or media channels
- Preparatory or exploratory research towards larger grant applications
- Public and community engagement activities
- Improvements to, or new, policies or operational activity at UCL
- Development of curricular, co-curricular or extra-curricular activity
- Research-led performance/public art-based outputs, including documentary films

Examples of previously funded activities can be found in Appendix A.

Exclusions

Allowable costs include payment for part-time research assistants. Please note the following items are not fundable under this scheme:

- Activities that will incur costs after 31 July 2023.
- Capital equipment costs
- Studies in basic science or research that is exclusively lab-based
- Article processing costs (publication fees)
- Staff 'buy-out', maintenance fees or bench fees

The UCL fiscal year-end is 31 July. All expenses must be invoiced by that date, with costed activities completed by Friday 21 July 2023. Use of awarded funds cannot be deferred to a later date.

Eligible applicants

At least one of the named applicants must be a member of UCL-based staff in an academic faculty, Professional Services division or Vice-President or Vice-Provost office groups including, but not limited to, women, BAME, LGBT+ community and disabled individuals at UCL to apply for this opportunity.

Assessment of applications and notification of decisions

Applications will be assessed by panels comprising members of RIGE, professional services staff and academic colleagues from across UCL.

The scoring criteria will include:

- Quality of the application and originality of topic and/or approach
- The extent to which the funded activity is cross-disciplinary, cross-activity and cross-boundary (academia to civil society)
- Strengths of the collaborating applicants and any external partners
- The extent to which the activity addresses place and displacement
- The extent to which the proposal is achievable within the timeframe and budget

The deadline for applications is Monday 3 October 2022, 9am. Funding decisions will be announced in late October/early November 2022, to enable access to awarded funds between 1 December 2022 and 31 July 2023.

Terms and conditions

By submitting this form, applicants indicate their agreement if successful to:

- Provide a short report at the end of the academic year to describe activities, outputs, and impact.
- Permit UCL RIGE to publicise the immediate, medium, and long-term outcomes attributable to funded projects.
- Acknowledge UCL RIGE support in publications or external communications, using our visual identity guidance.
